

Flush Zones

Flush Zones can represent pressure zones, maintenance areas, subdivisions, downtown areas, new developments, etc. All hydrants and requirements in a flush zone are under the same characteristics. Flush sequences are run on a per zone basis (i.e., a batch simulation cannot be run for sequences in two different zones).

Zones are created and managed by the Flush Zone Manager.